

Wood Chopping Axe

This axe is designed for chopping wood and other materials. It features a wooden handle and a durable head.

Product Overview

Professional Wood Chopping Axe

This wood chopping axe is engineered for efficiency and durability in forestry and landscaping applications. Featuring a robust wooden handle and a high-performance head, it provides the leverage and force required for effective wood splitting. Designed for professional use, this tool balances weight and ergonomics to minimize fatigue during extended operation.

Physical Characteristics

Handle Material	Wood
Head Color	Red, Gray

Usage

Primary Application	Wood chopping and material splitting
---------------------	--------------------------------------