

Woodworking Router Table

This router table is a versatile woodworking tool for precision routing. It features a sturdy table and adjustable fence for accurate workpiece positioning, compatible with various routers and equipped with safety features.

Product Overview

Precision Woodworking Solution

The RT150 Router Table is a high-performance tool designed to bring accuracy and safety to professional woodworking tasks. It features a robust surface and an adjustable fence system, allowing for precise workpiece positioning during complex routing operations. Equipped with an integrated dust collection port and safety guards, this unit ensures a cleaner workspace and improved operator security.

Technical Specifications

Compatibility & Features

- Universal router compatibility
- Adjustable fence system
- Integrated dust collection port
- Safety guard included

Application & Use

Primary Applications

Intricate profiling, Edge routing, Joinery, Precision woodworking