

Woodworking Surface Planer

This woodworking planer is designed for precise material removal and smooth surface finishing. It features adjustable infeed and outfeed tables, a robust fence system, and a powerful motor for efficient stock removal.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Precision Woodworking Performance

The WP310 heavy-duty surface planer is engineered for professional workshops requiring high-precision material removal and smooth surface finishing. It features a robust construction with an integrated circular arc spiral cutter shaft, ensuring efficient stock removal and superior surface quality. Designed for both durability and user safety, this tool includes a sturdy base, adjustable table components, and comprehensive emergency stop controls.

Key Features

Model Number	WP310
Cutter Shaft Type	Circular Arc Spiral
Operation Controls	Emergency Stop, Adjusting Handwheel, Quick Setting Guiding Rule

Operational Metrics

Technical Capacity

20 inch

Max Cutting Depth

Safety and Design

Safety Equipment

- Integrated Safety Cover
- Blade Guard
- Emergency Stop Button
- Dust Collection Port